Welcome to your new listing in Mon Pos! This stunning property features a main house with an open concept design, highlighted by exposed beams and unique architectural details, adding character to the space. With two spacious bedrooms and a beautifully appointed bathroom, the main house offers a serene retreat. Additionally, there is a separate one-bedroom, one-bathroom apartment, providing flexibility for guests or potential rental income. Prepare to be impressed by the extensive renovations the main house has undergone. From fully finished bedrooms, hallway, bathroom, and living room to new windows, double glazing, and heat-reflective glass, every detail has been carefully considered. The craftsmanship is exceptional, with a new roof, floors, and walls completing the transformation. Situated on a generous lot size of 13,452 m2, this property land offers ample outdoor space to create
